

2013 Pacific County Marine Resources

Annual Science Conference

Saturday May 18, 2013

8:00-8:45-Morning Mingle

8:45-9:00-Introductions

9:00-10:00-Todd Sandell with Wild Fish Conservancy-Juvenile Salmonid Habitat Usage in the Grays Harbor Estuary (35-45 minute talk, w/a minimum of 15 minutes of Q & A)

10:00-11:00-Will Ritchie with USFWS-Snowy Plovers and Streaked Horned Larks.
(35-45 minute talk, w/a minimum of 15 minutes of Q & A)

11:00-12:00-Warren Michaelis with WDFW-Migratory Birds in Willapa Bay & Red Knots in Willapa Bay and Grays Harbor (35-45 minute talk, w/a minimum of 15 minutes of Q & A)

12:00-1:00-Lunch

1:00-2:00- John Chapman with Oregon State University -Japanese Tsunami Biota. (35-45 minute talk, w/a minimum of 15 minutes of Q & A)

2:00-3:00-Dan Ayers with WDFW- Management of Coastal Shellfish: Razor Clams; Dungeness Crab; Spot Prawns and the Willapa Bay Oyster Reserves (35-45 minute talk, w/a minimum of 15 minutes of Q & A)

3:00-3:20-Afternoon Mingle

3:20-3:40- Libby Whiting-with DNR-CMSP Mapping Tool (10 minute talk, w/a 10 minute Q &A)

3:40-4:00-Jacob Moore with WGHOGA & Nick Haldeman with WSU - Update on Burrowing Shrimp Recruitment for 2012 & 2013. (10 minute talk, w/a 10 minute Q &A)

4:00-5:00- Jen Zamon- NOAA Northwest Fishery Science Center, Hammond. Seabird – fish interaction in Pacific County and the SW Washington Coast. (35-45 minute talk, w/a minimum of 15 minutes of Q & A) Back-up speaker– with Kim Patten WSU – Update on Japanese eelgrass, burrowing shrimp control, manila clam recruitment, and estuary restoration.

5:30-7:30-Dinner-Seafood Feast!